

Training for Families Regarding Early Intervention

Title	Format	Description	Link to training
Early Intervention Overview	Self-Paced Module	The national Early Intervention Program is under Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). New York's Early Intervention Program (EIP) is administered by the New York State Department of Health through the Bureau of Early Intervention. To be eligible for EI services, children must be under 3 years of age and have a confirmed disability or established developmental delay, as defined by the State, in one or more of the following areas of development: physical, cognitive, communication, social-emotional, and/or adaptive. The purpose of this module is to inform families about the steps in the Early Intervention Program. With this information, families will be ready to make informed decisions regarding their child and family's services, development, and well-being.	https://onlinelearningmodules.wihd.org/course-cat/?cat=early-intervention
Child Development (0-18 months)	Recorded Webinar/ Video	Part one of a two-part webinar series This webinar will help parents and caregivers become familiar with different stages of early development. It offers insight on how a child plays, learns, speaks, acts, and moves at each stage of life and offers important clues about their development.	Go to Learning Management System (nylearnsph.com) and search in the course catalog for course number: IFaCT-2021-05
Child Development (18 -36 months)	Recorded Webinar/ Video	Part two of a two-part webinar series This webinar will help parents and caregivers become familiar with different stages of early development. It offers insight on how a child plays, learns, speaks, acts, and moves at each stage of life and offers important clues about their development.	Go to Learning Management System (nylearnsph.com) and search in the course catalog for course number: IFaCT-2021-06
Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to the Early Intervention Program - Lissette & Manny	Video	A four-part video series was developed titled, Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to Early Intervention. Each video features parents of children who were in the Early Intervention Program (EIP) and was developed to highlight how the EIP helped their family. Three of the videos in the series focused on families living in communities where language could be a barrier to connect to the Program. In this video, an English-speaking parent talks about her family's journey from concern about their child's development, to early intervention enrollment.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/pXfO37KoeQE

Training for Families Regarding Early Intervention

Title	Format	Description	Link to training
Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to the Early Intervention Program - Miriam & Kevin (this video is in Spanish)	Video	A four-part video series was developed titled, Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to Early Intervention. Each video features parents of children who were in the Early Intervention Program (EIP) and was developed to highlight how the EIP helped their family. Three of the videos in the series focused on families living in communities where language could be a barrier to connect to the Program. In this video, a Spanish-speaking parent talks about her family's journey from concern about their child's development, to early intervention enrollment.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/AIDmJuOu9H8
Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to the Early Intervention Program - Sau & Hao (this video is in Mandarin)	Video	A four-part video series was developed titled, Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to Early Intervention. Each video features parents of children who were in the Early Intervention Program (EIP) and was developed to highlight how the EIP helped their family. Three of the videos in the series focused on families living in communities where language could be a barrier to connect to the Program. In this video a Mandarin-speaking parent talks about her family's journey from concern about their child's development, to early intervention enrollment.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/YjuWJHPof5o
Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to the Early Intervention Program - Adan & Ilham (this video is in Bengali)	Video	A four-part video series was developed titled, Families' Perspectives: A Parent's Journey to Early Intervention. Each video features parents of children who were in the Early Intervention Program (EIP) and was developed to highlight how the EIP helped their family. Three of the videos in the series focused on families living in communities where language could be a barrier to connect to the Program. In this video, a Bengali-speaking parent talks about her family's journey from concern about their child's development, to early intervention enrollment.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/saCwv5E4PvI
Developing IFSPs that Fit You and Your Priorities	Video	This video discusses the important role a parent has in developing their child's individualized family service plan (IFSP). It describes what the IFSP is and how it is created. It also discusses strategies parents can use to make sure their IFSP fits their family, priorities, and outcomes for their child.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/S7nK1ThYW3A

Training for Families Regarding Early Intervention
Title	Format	Description	Link to training
Overview of Families' Rights: Referral, Evaluation, and Eligibility	Video	Overview of Families' Rights During Referral, Evaluation and Eligibility is a four-part video series. Each video will cover a family's rights during different steps in the New York State's Early Intervention Program. In these videos, Kimberly Weisbeck, from Disability Rights New York (DRNY), describes the process and answers some frequently asked questions about early intervention from referral to transition. This first video, Overview of Families' Rights: During Referral, Evaluation and Eligibility, discusses eligibility for the Early Intervention Program and the evaluation and referral process.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/zjaZxsVToPY
Overview of Families' Rights: Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP)	Video	Overview of Families' Rights During Referral, Evaluation and Eligibility is a four-part video series. Each video will cover a family's rights during different steps in the New York State's Early Intervention Program. In these videos, Kimberly Weisbeck, from Disability Rights New York (DRNY), describes the process and answers some frequently asked questions about early intervention from referral to transition. This second video, Overview of Families' Rights: Regarding Individualized Family Service Plans, discusses your family's rights when creating an individualized family service plan (IFSP).	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/FzaF9SKjcrW
Overview of Families' Rights: Early Intervention Sessions	Video	Overview of Families' Rights During Referral, Evaluation and Eligibility is a four-part video series. Each video will cover a family's rights during different steps in the New York State's Early Intervention Program. In these videos, Kimberly Weisbeck, from Disability Rights New York (DRNY), describes the process and answers some frequently asked questions about early intervention from referral to transition. This third video, Overview of Families' Rights: During Early Intervention sessions, discusses your family's rights during the delivery of early intervention services.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/flKmlB2eQ4s
Overview of Families' Rights: Transition	Video	Overview of Families' Rights During Referral, Evaluation and Eligibility is a four-part video series. Each video will cover a family's rights during different steps in the New York State's Early Intervention Program. In these videos, Kimberly Weisbeck, from Disability Rights New York (DRNY), describes the process and answers some frequently asked questions about early intervention from referral to transition.	This video is on the DOH YouTube page: https://youtu.be/l73XJChBdzS

Training for Families Regarding Early Intervention

Title	Format	Description	Link to training
		This fourth and final video in this series, Overview of Families' Rights: During Transition from Early Intervention , discusses your family's rights as you transition out of Early Intervention Program.	