Policies and Procedures

Subject: Community Integration

Policy: Registrants are allowed / encourage to integrate into community as they wish.

Procedure:

1. We encourage our Registrants to integrate in the community. This includes but not limited to medical appointments, shopping centers, events, health fairs.
2. Registrants have the choice and freedom to participate in any community planned events of their choice. Registrants are advised to speak with the Social Worker who will assist and support their desired schedule.
3. Each month the program offers 1-2 planned day trips into the community.
4. On a monthly basis, Director of recreation meets with registrants to discuss upcoming events. Registrants are encouraged to express what trips/ community events, they are interested in.
5. The Director of Recreation will plan the upcoming months' trips based on the feedback from the registrants.
6. Registrants are encouraged to participate in all scheduled trips. However alternate activities are provided for all registrants who choose not to attend.
7. A signup sheet is provided to all registrants to participate in the day trip.
8. RN Coordinator is provided with signup sheet for planned day trip. Upon Review, RN Coordinator will determine the Registrants' health status, and eligibility to participate in upcoming trip.
9. A RN will attend every trip to ensure safety and security for Registrants.
10. Staff will make proper arrangements with Dietary for meals and snacks on trips. However, all Registrant have the choice to request alternative options.
11. On a weekly basis there are persons who comes to our center from the community to provide entertainment/visitation to our Registrants.
12. Registrants are encouraged to express their interests for visitation and entertainment.
