

Commissioner's Medical Grand Rounds

Sepsis Syndrome 2015

The critical nature of sepsis and the importance of early recognition and treatment of sepsis will be presented.

This Grand Rounds is intended for office based primary care physicians, physician assistants and nurse practitioners who see patients in the office and long term care settings.

Host

Howard A. Zucker, M.D., J.D.

Commissioner, New York State Department of Health

Presenters

Michael Aronica, M.D.

Associate Professor of Clinical Internal Medicine and Pediatrics and Program Director, Combined Internal Medicine-Pediatrics Residency Program, SUNY Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences

Amanda Hassinger, M.D.

Assistant Professor, Department of Pediatrics, SUNY Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences and Director of Patient Safety and Quality, Pediatric Critical Care, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo

Thomas Russo, M.D.

Professor and Chief, Infectious Disease, Department of Medicine, SUNY Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences

Thursday, November 5, 2015, 6-8pm

Roswell Park Cancer Institute

The Research Studies Center - Gaylord Cary Conference Room

666 Elm Street

Buffalo, NY 14263

This Grand Rounds Program is free of charge.
Advance registration is requested.

Please click here to register.

Choose General Attendee under Registration Fees and then click Continue.

Sandwiches and light refreshments will be served.

Upcoming Events

Ending the HIV Epidemic

Digital Health Technology Can Change Your World

Organ Donation

Inappropriate Antibiotic Prescribing

Update in Stroke Guidelines

Update in Myocardial Infarction Guidelines

...More TBA

Continuing Medical Education Credits

The School of Public Health, University at Albany is accredited by the Medical Society of the State of New York (MSSNY) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The School of Public Health, University at Albany designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The planners and faculty participants do not have any financial arrangements or affiliations with any commercial entities whose products, research or services may be discussed in these materials. No commercial funding has been accepted for this activity.