BEWARE OF THE INTRUDER

Where does radon come from?

Radon gas is an odorless, invisible gas that can seep up from the ground into homes. It can also be released into drinking water from wells and from certain building materials.