What is NYP$?
NYP$ is a free pharmacy discount card that is sponsored by New York State. You can use this card at participating pharmacies to save as much as 60% on generics and 30% on brand name drugs. The savings are provided through the cooperation and support of local pharmacies and drug manufacturers.

How to Apply for the NY Prescription Saver Card
To be eligible, each applicant must be:
• a resident of New York State;
• not receiving Medicaid;
• either (a) age 50 up to 65, or (b) determined disabled by the Social Security Administration AND
• have annual income under $35,000 if single and $50,000 if married.
To apply, complete the application on the back following the instructions below, and send to NYP$ using the mailing address or website shown on the bottom of the application.

1 Personal Information
Each person applying needs to fill out a separate application. If you have a spouse or another family member who is applying, they should complete a separate application. Each applicant that is approved will receive his or her own pharmacy discount card. Fill in the full name of the applicant, and the mailing address for correspondence.

Enter the name of another person who would be receiving the mail for the applicant as a C/O name.

Enter the birth date of the applicant (MM, DD, YYYY), as well as sex and marital status (S=single, unmarried, divorced, widowed or married living apart, M=married).

Enter the race of the applicant (optional).

2 Disability status
Check YES under “Disability Status” only if the applicant has been determined disabled by the Social Security Administration. Otherwise check NO.

3 Household Income
Report the total household gross income for the previous calendar year. If you are married and living together, include joint income, even if your spouse is not applying. Include income from wages, IRA distribution, dividends and interest, Social Security, railroad pensions, Workers Compensation, Veterans benefits and other income.

4 Certification and Consent
Read the certification statement carefully, and sign the application form. If the applicant is unable to understand or sign the form, an authorized representative may sign their name on behalf of the applicant.
