

Epogen and Rate Code 3107 will be Subsumed by the APG Payment Methodology on January 1, 2012 (Delayed from October 1, 2011)

Effective January 1, 2012 (delayed from October 1, 2011), epogen (J0882, J0885, J0886, Q4081) and rate code 3107 (Monthly Dialysis Services - Medicare Crossover), will be subsumed by the APG payment methodology. Currently, rate code 3107 and procedure codes J0882, J0885, and J0886 are carved out of APGs. For dates of service on or after January 1, 2012, these services are no longer carved out and should be billed under your APG rate code. More detailed billing guidance will be released soon.
