Year	Monthly Amount
2008	$96.40 per month*
2009	$96.40 per month*
2010	$96.40 per month-- $110.50 per month—if newly applying for Medicare or not protected by “hold harmless” provisions [See below]
2011	$96.40 per month -- if previously enrolled in Medicare $115.40 per month- if newly applying for Medicare or not protected by “hold harmless” provisions [See below]
2012	$99.90 per month with no “hold harmless” provisions

NOTE: Under a “hold-harmless” provision of federal law, basic Medicare Part B premiums in any year cannot rise higher than that year’s COLA.

The Hold Harmless provision does not apply to the following individuals who must pay a higher premium:

Individuals whose income is above $85,000 or by a married individual when the couple’s combined income is over $170,000.

Individuals who do not have the Part B premium deducted from their Social Security benefit. This includes individuals who are on the Medicare Buy-In program and have their premiums paid for them. The increased premium will be paid by the State.
