ROOM AND/OR BOARD - The first $60 per month of any income from each boarder and the first $15 per month from each roomer (lodger). If the A/R can document that the actual expenses incurred in providing the room for the roomer, exceeds $15 per month, or that the actual expenses incurred in providing room and board for a boarder exceeds $60 per month, then the actual documented expenses are disregarded (see page 126).

STUDENTS - Earned Income - Student earned income as described below:

If the under 21 A/R is not employed full-time, all earned income is disregarded whether the A/R is a full or part-time student. It is not necessary to verify school attendance, unless there is an indication that the A/R is not attending. The A/R's statement on the application that s/he is a high school student is sufficient.

If the under 21 A/R is employed full-time, the treatment of earned income depends on whether the A/R is a full or part-time student.

If the under 21 A/R is a full-time student all earned income is disregarded for a six-month period per calendar year. Thereafter, such income becomes countable.

INCOMELIF DISREGARDS

If the under 21 A/R is a part-time student all earned income is countable.

NOTE: Summer employment is seasonal and not considered full-time employment.

Graduate Educational Grants or Scholarships - Educational grants, fellowships or scholarships for a graduate student, obtained and used for educational purposes only. This precludes their use for meeting current living expenses. The student must attest to this in writing. The language of the attestation attached to 83 ADM-67 must be used without change.

When an A/R is in receipt of a graduate assistantship, the local district receives verification from the financial aid office involved to determine if the assistantship is considered employment or an educational grant. If the assistantship is a grant, it is treated as outlined in the previous paragraph. When the assistantship is considered employment, the A/R receives any appropriate earned income disregards (see pages 144 to 147), but additional deductions for educational expenses are not allowed.
