Interpretation: There are certain forms of income that are not considered in the calculation of gross monthly income for budgeting purposes. These disregards are listed beginning on page 150.

The following topics are discussed in detail for ADC-related budgeting:

$90 work expense disregard;
$30 and 1/3;
Child care/incapacitated adult care cost; and
Health insurance premiums.

These disregards are discussed in the order that they are subtracted from the A/R's income. In addition, page 156 describes the $50 support payment disregard that is deducted from support income only before determining the countable gross income of the A/R.
