

INCOME

ALLOCATION

- (b) This allocation amount is offset on a dollar for dollar basis by any other income the child receives in his/her own right (whether or not the child is applying);
 - (c) In determining eligibility for an SSI-related adult, the remaining allocation amount, not offset by the non-SSI-related child's own income, is allocated from the unearned income of the non-SSI-related parent after deducting any court-ordered support paid by the non-SSI-related spouse from his/her unearned income. When the non-SSI-related parent does not have sufficient unearned income to meet the allocation, the remaining allocation is made from the non-SSI-related parent's earned income after deducting any court-ordered support paid by the non-SSI-related spouse from his/her earned income.
 - (d) In determining eligibility for an SSI-related child, the remaining allocation amount not offset by the non-SSI-related child's own income is allocated from the unearned income of the parents after deducting any court-ordered support paid by the non-SSI-related spouse from his/her unearned income. When the parents do not have sufficient unearned income to meet the allocation, the remaining allocation is made from the non-SSI-related parents' earned income after deducting any court-ordered support paid by the non-SSI-related spouse from his/her earned income.
- (2) The process of allocating to parents is as follows:
- (a) In determining eligibility for an SSI-related child, after allocating to any non-SSI-related children, as shown above in step (1), the remaining income of the parents, whether earned, unearned or a combination, is computed;

NOTE: If there is no allocation to any non-SSI-related child, subtract any court-ordered support paid by either parent before combining the parents' earned and unearned income.
