Instructions

The extension clause in your contract allows you to decide if you want to extend the existing contract, up to four times, one year at a time. If your organization elects not to extend the contract, please follow the procedures for a new contract as outlined in CACFP Policy Memo Number 110 Purchasing Meals from a Food Service Vendor.

If you choose to extend the contract for one year, follow the steps below.

1. Before your contract expires, contact your current vendor and offer to extend the existing contract for another year.

2. Inform the vendor that the terms and conditions of the original contract must remain the same, except for the price. The price per meal may be negotiated but the combined total cannot be greater than 3%.

   For example, if the vendor previously charged a total of $3.00 for breakfast, lunch, and snack, the vendor cannot charge more than $3.09 (3% of 3.00 = $.09).

3. If the vendor agrees to maintain current prices or the increases are 3% or less, you can complete Sections 1, 2, 3 and 5. Send the extension form to the vendor. The vendor must complete Section 4 (the new price per meal), sign the form in Section 7 and attach a four-week cycle menu and daily delivery invoice.

4. If the vendor wants a price increase greater than 3%, you cannot extend the existing contract. In this case, follow the procedures in CACFP Policy Memo Number 110 Purchasing Meals from a Food Service Vendor and:

   a. If the total cost of the contract will be $100,000 or less, use form CACFP-142 Vendor Contract Packet.

   b. If the total cost of the contract is over $100,000, use form CACFP-143 Invitation for Bid and Vendor Contract Packet.

5. If the total cost of the contract is:

   over $100,000
   the completed extension, a current four-week cycle menu, daily delivery invoices, and the vendor's current health department permit must be submitted to CACFP for approval.

   $100,000 or less
   the completed extension, a current four-week cycle menu, daily delivery invoices, and the vendor's current health department permit must be kept on file.

Contact CACFP if you need assistance.
