

2nd Annual Trauma Registry Conference
Stepping Up: From Data to Information

AGENDA

- 830-845 Registration and Coffee
- 845-850 Welcome and Orientation James Vosswinkel, MD, FACS
- 850-945 From Data to Information Elisa Horbatuk, MS
Identify challenges and strategies to get good use of the registry data. Learn about global perspective and comparative data sets. Learn how hospitals are using data to drive quality
- 945-1030 Common Challenges Jane McCormack, RN, BSN, CSTR
Discuss strategies to combat staffing, backlog, and orientation/training
- 1030-1045 BREAK
- 1045-1130 Ten Data Lessons Learned Mary Ellen Zimmerman, RN
Learn from an experienced program manager about how she's come to value the registry
- 1130-1215 Data Validation Jane McCormack RN, BSN, CSTR and Emily Huang, MS
Discuss strategies to develop and enhance individual record validation, data submission validation, and inter-rater reliability.
- 1215-115 LUNCH
- QUICK SHOTS: 15 minutes of Practical Knowledge!
- 115-130 Resources Deb Iorio, RN, CSTR and Sharon Valentine RN, MSN
Identify tools that the registrar needs at their fingertips to facilitate data abstraction
- 130-145 Research Erin Zazzera, RN, MPH
Discuss tips for data utilization, abstract submission, and publication
- 145-200 Injury Prevention Kristi Ladowski, MPH
Describe the importance of accurate injury recording to guide injury prevention
- 200-215 Back to Basics Jane McCormack, RN, BSN, CSTR
Review the basic tools of the trade in trauma registry (AIS, GCS, ISS, RAMR, FIM, Ps)
- 215-230 BREAK
- 230-330 Case Review of selected Fields Jane McCormack and Erin Zazzera
Utilize case reports to abstract selected fields including pre-existing conditions, injuries and complications
- 330-415 Jeopardy!
Summarize today's lessons with a fun interactive game!
- 415-430 Wrap Up and Evaluations