WIC (Women, Infants, and Children) is a federal program that provides nutrition assistance to low-income pregnant women, infants, and children. It is administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and is designed to improve the health of women, infants, and children by providing them with access to healthy and nutritious food.

To learn more about the WIC program or to find a WIC provider near you, please visit the USDA website at https://www.choosemyplate.gov/wic or call the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

If you have a complaint about a WIC provider or service, you may file a complaint with the USDA. To file a complaint, you can call (866) 332-9992 or write to the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights at the USDA headquarters.
